

2020-2021 VA Benefit Worksheet (Chapter 33)
Post 9/11, 100% Tier beneficiaries. Note: Active duty soldiers and their spouses do not qualify for Yellow Ribbon funding.

Student Name: _____ University ID _____

Degree Program: _____ Grad or Undergrad _____

COMPLETE SECTION A OR B.

A. Complete this section if you are a current RIT student who is using VA benefits. Circle your answers.
Are you the: Veteran or Dependent or Spouse or Active Duty
Has your RIT degree program changed within the last year? Yes or No

OR

B. Complete this section if you are new to RIT or using benefits at RIT for the first time. Circle your answers.
Are you the: Veteran or Dependent or Spouse or Active Duty
If active duty will you be discharged before you begin at RIT? Yes / No
Have you previously received VA benefits? Yes / No
If yes-Submit VA form 22-1995 and list your previous college: _____

ENROLLMENT PLANS

Indicate if you plan to attend Part-time (PT), Full-time* (FT), Co-Op or Not Attending (NA) during each term below.
Fall (2201): PT / FT / Co-Op / NA Spring (2205): PT / FT / Co-Op / NA Summer (2208): PT / FT / Co-Op / NA
Co-Op Payment? Yes / No
*Full-time for undergraduate students is 12 or more credits or 9 or more credits for graduate students
During Co-Op, you can choose to use your entitlement in order to receive your housing stipend. Co-Op certification will reduce your total monthly entitlement just as any other term certification would.

REVIEW AND SIGN

Important Information: RIT will only certify your eligibility for VA benefits for coursework applicable to your program of study (including electives). Any changes in course registration and/or number of credits you are taking must be reported to the Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships and may result in a debt owed to the VA and/or a balance due to RIT. Other forms of financial aid (including RIT merit-based and need-based awards) are subject to change based on VA benefits received.
Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Please upload required documents/forms to www.rit.edu/aid/upload or mail to our office.